

hillcraft is in the news! We have had the honor of being mentioned in several major publications for some of our recent projects.

hillcraft's custom furniture was pictured in the May 2010 issue of Hotel Design magazine. We provided numerous custom pieces, including the coffee table and two "log" tables pictured. For additional details visit Hotel World Network online or The Distrikt Hotel.

One of our most notable projects, the Microbial Sciences Building at the University of Wisconsin-Madison was featured in the Summer 2010 issue of Design Solutions, published by the Architectural Woodwork Institute. This AWI-QCP Certified project included wall paneling and seating in common areas, reception desk, lecterns, work stations, and more. Visit AWI online for the complete article.

hillcraft was thrilled to learn that one of our projects, The Barbara Hochberg Center for Jewish Life at the University of Wisconsin-Madison (UW-Hillel) was named In Business magazine's Best New Development or Renovation PROJECT OF THE YEAR for 2010! This is the highest honor awarded to a project by the magazine! Please visit IBMadison for more details.
